

Basila Abogados and JBV (José, Barhem y Villaseñor abogados) announce that members of JBV will become part of Basila Abogados as of January 1, 2024.

Basila Abogados and JBV are firms that have successfully collaborated for several years, now their close ties over the years have led both firms to consolidate a strategic alliance by integrating their teams in Basila Abogados as of January 1, 2024. This agreement allows them to strengthen their current practices and to reinforce their positioning in Mexico in the provision of high quality and specialized legal services.

With this union Yamil José Aguilar, who was already Of Counsel of the firm, joins as Partner and Omar Villaseñor Talavera joins the team as Of Counsel, both accompanied by a team of 10 professionals. With this integration the firm will have more than 20 professionals between partners and lawyers.

As a result, Basila Abogados adds to its highly regarded capital markets and private equity practices, the area of litigation specialized in complex cases of any size in the financial-securities and commercial bankruptcy matters and consolidates the specialization of the firm for the best attention of its domestic and foreign clients.

With the incorporation of Omar Villaseñor Talavera and his team of specialized lawyers, the corporate and foreign investment areas of the firm are strengthened.

Mauricio Basila commented "this agreement allows us to offer our clients in addition to our well-known practices to cover their needs for expert legal representation in specialized securities and financial litigation matters."

For Yamil José, the merger agreement represents "a new opportunity to continue consolidating the financial and insolvency litigation area, which is highly specialized and complex".
